

Office Clerk

I am officially requesting a copy of my Federal 'Court Docket Sheet' and a copy of my 'Judgement and Commitment'

I would greatly appreciate if you could mail those two documents to me as soon as possible.

Thank you,

Delwayne Cotten

Re: Your correspondence received in the U.S. District Clerk's Office on 8/1/2017
Case No./Style: 3:15-cr-00068-K-1

Dear Mr. Cotten,

Enclosed is a courtesy copy of the judgment in your case. The Clerk's Office does not have a commitment document you reference in your request. Future copies of docket sheets and/or documents will require prepayment of the copy expense, currently $0.50 per page. Certification of copies is an additional $11.00 per document. The court may direct the clerk to provide copies without cost to an indigent defendant who is proceeding pro se in a criminal case. However, the granting of in forma pauperis status under 28 U.S.C. § 1915 in a case does not entitle a litigant to free copies or services.

Sincerely,

Deputy Clerk - RAN
